We gather this weekend to celebrate the Fifteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time. The readings are: Amos 7:12-15, Paul's Letter to the Ephesians 1:3-14 and Mark 7:7-13. Amos is having a bad day, he had a run in with the king who told him to go home. Amos was told by the king he was no prophet – didn't have the right credentials. Amos tells the king he has been called by God to speak to the people to remind them to return to the practice of their faith. St. Paul today is writing to remind us that we are called to become God's children by adoption in baptism. We are to live our lives reflecting Christ's work in us as beloved children of the Father. In the Gospel today Jesus is sending out his disciples for a journey to begin their work of spreading the Good News. Jesus is giving them clear instructions on what to take and where to go and what to say. Their work is to live the message by offering hope and healing to all in need.

On Tuesday evening we have a class OCIA, (formally called RCIA) for those interested in joining the Church. We will meet on Tuesday evening at 7 pm in the Parish Center. The class will meet for about an hour during the summer months. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Next week begins the Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis, IN, July 16 – 21. The Bishop has asked each of the Pastorates to have some time for Eucharistic Adoration in all the parishes. We will have Adoration on Tuesday after Mass from 9:00 until 10:30 am and on Thursday afternoon from 2 until 3 pm.

We need your help!

Are you a little bit "techy"? If so you would be a perfect fit to bring our 8:30 Holy Name of Jesus Mass to the air on KXLG.

You simply have to bring up a live video on Facebook and KXLG does the rest! This would be for one weekend per month.

We are also in need of one or more Sacristans. These duties would include setting up for Mass and checking in liturgical ministers and finding replacements if necessary.

If you can help with any of these please call Lisa in the office at 605-886-2628

Our Webpage is Moving!

Effective August 1st, our webpage, holynameofjesus.org, will no longer be supported.

For the most current bulletin, sacramental information and happenings in the pastorate, please go to the avemariapastorate.org website.

This site is up and very easy to navigate, please check it out now!

TIDBITS OF OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

Your Soul is Just Like a Garden?!!

Watering and Weeding is not just for plants!

The saints understood something beautiful that the rest of us often miss...

Our souls are a lot like gardens.

Just as a garden requires labor, care, and attentiveness to flourish, so too does the spiritual life demand nurture and vigilance.

St. Teresa of Ávila used the metaphor of a garden to describe the soul's development in The Interior Castle. She wrote: "The soul is like a garden enclosed, full of great beauty, abounding in delights, and rich with fruits. The owner of this garden is God Himself."

Here, Teresa illustrates the soul's inner life as a garden that must be tended with prayer, meditation, and contemplation. The gardener's role is to cooperate with God's grace in rooting out the weeds of sin and planting virtues, just as a gardener cultivates beautiful flowers and edible plants.

St. Thérèse of Lisieux used the imagery of flowers to represent souls. Each soul, like each flower, is unique and contributes its beauty to the splendor of creation, which she considered the garden of the Lord. She encourages us to offer ourselves as "little flowers" to Jesus, reminding us how even the smallest acts, when done with love, are a delight to Him. Beyond being a useful metaphor, the practical act of gardening can also be a form of prayer.

Repetitive tasks such as planting, weeding, and watering offer a rhythm that lends itself to contemplative silence, in which we can meditate on the word of God and the beauty of the natural world.

Moreover, the patience required in gardening—waiting for seeds to sprout and mature into flowers or fruits—mirrors the patience needed in the spiritual life, where growth and transformation often occur incrementally and beneath the surface. Just as a gardener cannot hurry the growth of a plant, neither can we rush our spiritual growth; both require patience, perseverance, and trust in a fruitful outcome.

There are so many more lessons about both gardening and the spiritual life to be learned!
