Is the Mass really a sacrifice?

Fundamentalists reject the Catholic teaching on the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for two reasons. They claim the Mass violates many passages in Hebrews which tell us Jesus was only sacrificed once, and that, without the shedding of blood, there is no forgiveness of sins (Heb 9:22, 25, 28, 10: 11- 12). They think Catholics teach Jesus is sacrificed again at every Mass. They cite Catholic catechisms which teach that in the Mass Jesus is offered in an unbloody manner.

The Catholic Church teaches that the one, all-sufficient, bloody sacrifice of Jesus at Calvary is made present at each Mass in an unbloody manner. Christ is not re-sacrificed at each Mass; rather the Mass re-presents the one sacrifice of Calvary. Thus, the efficacy (effectiveness) of the Mass comes entirely from the one, bloody sacrifice of Calvary.

The passages referred to in Hebrews compare the many sacrifices of the Old Testament religion, which could not atone for sin nor reconcile mankind to God, with the one sacrifice of Christ which did atone for all sins and reconcile mankind to God. Hebrews also stresses that the bloody sacrifices of animals in the OT prefigured the bloody sacrifice of Christ for the remission of sin.

The Holy Mass, also known as the Lord's Supper or the Eucharist, repeats what happened at the Last Supper. At the Last Supper Our Lord turned bread into His body, and said that this body would be offered up (sacrificed) for us. He turned wine into His blood, and said that this blood would be shed (sacrificed) for us. Clearly, at the Last Supper, Jesus made His future sacrifice at Calvary present. He then commanded His disciples to repeat this mystery. In 1 Corinthians 11:26, St. Paul tells us that in the celebration of the Eucharist we "proclaim the death of the Lord until He comes." Thus, the Last Supper, which made the sacrifice of Calvary present, will continue to be repeated in the Holy Mass until the end of time. In this way Christ's once-for-all sacrifice will be made present to the faithful until the end of time.

What a tremendous gift of mercy we receive in this mystery. For we are able to be present at the event that has changed everything. His mercy reaches across time and space in order to transform our hearts as well.

It is better to be a child of God than king of the whole world.

My confidence is placed in God who does not need our help for accomplishing His designs. Our part is to pray that we may be worthy of becoming His instruments.

When He takes away what He once lent us, His purpose is to store our treasure elsewhere, more safely and bestow on us, those very blessings, that we ourselves would most choose to have.

He who wishes to love God does not truly love Him, if he has not an ardent and constant desire to suffer for His sake.

In the twilight of our life we shall be judged according to love.

A NEW ROTATION SCHEDULE FOR THE PRIESTS of the pastorate goes into effect in July. The rule of thumb is that they will be in their locations the first two weekends of the month and then out and about the remaining weekends of the month. They will also be in their own locations for all of December and then for the month where Holy Week, the Sacred Triduum, and Easter all fall. There also may be slight variations in this due to First Communion and the like.

SUBMISSION OF NAMES OF THOSE WHO MAY HAVE VOCATIONS: Remember, if you submitted the name of someone who may have a vocation to the priesthood, please be sure an remember to put him on your prayers list and pray for him by name.

THE FAMILY CAMP FOR AVE MARIA PASTORATE IS POSTPONED

Due to unforeseen circumstances, our family camp scheduled for this August at Broom Tree has been postponed. We hope to look into planning another one in the future. Please continue to watch the bulletin for other pastorate opportunities this Fall.
